NARRATIVE:

Allen Prothro has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 20. His convictions include attempted carjacking, attempted robbery, several vehicle thefts, burglary, possession of controlled substances with prior state prison, contempt of court and multiple petty thefts. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being an 102 month term for attempted carjacking. Prothro was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on February 4, 2015. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in July 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Prothro qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for burglary is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
